

Nashville Public Television
PBS KIDS® Raising Readers Corners

Some Nashville Public Libraries will offer more than just books this summer!

NPT PBS KIDS® Raising Readers Library Corners.

Fun-filled literacy activities from PBS KIDS® Raising Readers series Sesame Street, Word World, SUPER WHY!, Between the Lions, Martha Speaks, and the Electric Company will get everyone excited about reading. Visit the NPT PBS KIDS® Raising Readers Corner during regular business hours with a parent or friend to explore reading activities and games!

- The NPT PBS KIDS® Raising Readers Library Corner gives children and parents the opportunity to strengthen literacy skills through fun, engaging multi-media platforms. This “Literacy 360” approach surrounds children with opportunities to read, and there’s no place better to start than the public library! Nashville Public Television and PBS KIDS Raising Readers are helping kids in Nashville learn to read by offering fun, free reading activities all summer long. Visit the PBS KIDS Raising Readers Corner at the following libraries to learn how you can help your child learn to ready anytime, anywhere!

Bordeaux Area Library
4000 Clarksville Pike,
Nashville, TN 37218
(615) 862-5856

Madison Area Library
610 Gallatin Pike South
Madison, TN 37115
(615) 862-5868

Looby Branch library
2301 Rosa Parks Blvd
Nashville, TN 37228
(615) 862-5867

Pruitt Branch Library
117 Charles E Davis Blvd
Nashville, TN 37210
(615) 862-5985

And in Rutherford County:

Linebaugh Library
105 East Vine Street
Murfreesboro, TN 37130
(615) 893-4131